Other committee members may be elected to the committee during the AGM and/or co-opted to the committee during the year. It is also now possible to nominate committee members during the AGM.

If you would like to propose someone for election to the CMBHA committee in advance of the AGM, this can be done by writing their name, your name as proposer and another CMBHA member's name as a second and emailing that information to info@cmbha.net. You can nominate any full member for election to an officer's post e.g. chairman, secretary, treasurer or as a committee member. Although all this looks formal, CMBHA is an informal organisation run by volunteers. So please email if you have any queries to info@cmbha.net
